

“CUSCO EXPRESS” WALKING TOUR

(DURATION: 3 HRS APPROX.)

Our “Local Friend” will pick you up from your Hotel and you’ll start the tour walking through the cobble-stoned streets and Inca walls of this beautiful city until you get to your first stop. You can choose to visit either the Qorikancha or Cusco’s Cathedral:

- Qorikancha (entry ticket 15 soles pp): The most important and revered temple of the Inca Empire, dedicated primarily to the Inti (the Sun God).
- Cathedral (entry ticket 25 soles pp): The most exquisite church in South America because it keeps inside beautiful paintings of the XVI, XVII and XVIII centuries made by the Cuzco School, besides amazing baroque works in cedar wood and the very famous “Last Supper” painted by the Quechua artist Marcos Zapata, showing the symbiosis between the Inca and the Spanish culture.

You will walk through Cusco’s narrow and steep streets with old houses, built by the Spanish over important Inca foundations, and get to Hatun Rumiyoq Street, where is located the famous: “The Twelve Angle’s Stone”. Then to the Plaza de Armas of Cusco, to appreciate its beautiful fountain and the impressive buildings that surround it.

Your last stop will be the biggest and most popular market of Cusco: Market of San Pedro. Here you can appreciate the “Modus Vivendus” of the “Cusqueños”, how people offer their products and how it’s organized. This huge market has a wide variety of items being sold like: fresh juices, delicious cheese, fruits, vegetables, herbs, spices, fresh coca leaves and also “weird” stuff like snakes in bottles, etc. You’ll wander around the numerous small stands and get inspired by the very special flair of this place.

Finally, you’ll be taken you back to your hotel and that will be the end of the tour.
