

“DOWNTOWN GEMS” WALKING TOUR

(DURATION: 3 1/2HRS APPROX.)

To start off your Walking Tour, your “Local Friend” will pick you up from your hotel. Then, you’ll take the Metropolitano bus, or a local taxi, to Lima Historical Center. You’ll visit first Plaza San Martín, the second most important plaza of Lima. Admire the art deco and nouveau styles of the crowded Jirón de la Unión, finishing in the Main Plaza of Lima. Around the main square, you’ll encounter the Government Palace, City Hall, La Casa del Oidor, Cathedral, Archbishopric, Old Bronze Fountain, Taulichuso’s Stone, Pasaje Olaya, and Club de la Unión.

As you walk in the city, you will see the Desamparados Train Station and Cordano Bar, the oldest bar in the city. After that, you have options about what to see next. You can stop by the San Francisco Church to marvel at the religious art and catacombs, paying an entry fee of 15 Peruvian soles per person (about $5.00 USD per person). Alternately, you can go shopping for souvenirs. Your guide can help you bargain and find the best deals. The third option is going to get lunch or snacks in a local restaurant. Again, your guide is a great source of advice and recommendations.

Finally, your “Local Friend” will help you to get a taxi back to your hotel, or you can choose to continue exploring the city on your own if you want to. That will be the end of our services.
