To learn more about the local’s culture, you’ll head to the San Camilo market, where you’ll be able to appreciate the national reality and some local products.

For lunch, your “Local Friend” will accompany you to do a stop at a local “picantería” so you can try tasty local food. Later, you’ll take a private transportation to reach the famous “Mirador de Yanahuara”, the most important viewpoint of the city, from where you can see the Misti volcano in all its splendor.

You’ll head towards the “campiña”, the countryside of Arequipa. Here you’ll visit: the Founder’s Mansion (a colonial style house made of sillar), the Sabandía Mill (a 1621 water mill that still works), the Paucarpatá square and Sachaca viewpoint.
