

“VINICUNCA RAINBOW MOUNTAIN”

(DURATION: 12 HRS APPROX.)

Your “Local Friend” and the driver will pick you up at 4:00 AM from your hotel in Cusco city, to go south for 1.5 hours in private transportation, passing through many colonial towns, to finally arrive to Colca, a little village where we’ll have breakfast.

We’ll travel 1.5hrs more in the vehicle until we reach the starting point of our trek, located at 15,160 feet. From here we’ll walk uphill for 2 hours approx.

With each step closer to the summit, the mountains expose their beautiful natural colors. Finally, our reward is at the Vinicunca lookout, located at 16,700 feet. Impressive views of the Vilcanota mountain range and its higher glacier, the Ausangate (20,915 feet) will surround us.

You’ll have plenty of time to look around, rest, take photos, breath the fresh Andes air and get lots of interesting information from your guide.

Then, we’ll start our descent for 1.5hrs following the same path, until we get to the trek starting point where the private vehicle will be waiting for us to take us for lunch.

Finishing lunch, we’ll be driven to Cusco city, arriving at 4:30 PM approx. at your hotel and bringing back great memories of this trip.

WHAT’S INCLUDED: Private local guide, private vehicle, private local driver, breakfast, lunch (only hot beverages included), entry ticket to Vinicunca Mountain, first aid kit and emergency oxygen.

WHAT’S NOT INCLUDED: Gratuities, extra beverages, dinner and personal expenses.